

Quitting = Business = Sale

Another enterprise that I was forced in by a recent death in family compels me to quit the clothing and shoe business here. To do this I am obliged to close out my entire stock in as short a time as possible, therefore beginning MONDAY, FEBRUARY 24th, my entire stock of Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing, Furnishing Goods, Hats, Caps, Furs, Men's, Women's and Children's Shoes and Rubbers will be placed on sale at prices that will help me gain the point and gain it quick. Remember, profit and wholesale cost are not considered during this sale; closing out the stock is the only consideration. It is useless to mention specials, as I have not any, as this is not a clearance sale that we want to close out certain goods. During this sale everything must go from a pair of sox to a suit, from a fur coat to a summer linen suit, from a pair of pants to a show case. EVERYTHING. EVERYTHING. Dealers are not barred during this sale.

Sale Begins Monday, February 24th, at 10 a. m.

DANBURY.

Mrs. McKee, who has been suffering with sciatic rheumatism, is reported better.

Mr. Davis, who lives on the Moyer farm, had his sale the 19th. He will move with his family to Scott county, Kans., where he bought a farm last fall.

Miss Beth McDonald entertained about fifty of her friends on valentine evening, the time being spent in games and social pleasures, after which light refreshments were served. All report a delightful time.

Mr. and Miss Atkins, cousins of Mayo Green, visited him and other relatives, last week. They live southeast of Oberlin, Kans.

Alfred Parmer had his sale the 18th. He will visit awhile at Stamford with his parents, then will leave with his family for the Klondike.

W. R. Burbridge and wife will move to Smith county, Kansas, about the 28th.

Mr. Moyer will soon move to his farm vacated by Mr. Davis.

Mr. Yales', brother-in-law and wife from Hendley were visiting him, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Stilgebauer and son Cecil are visiting with Mrs. Lena Green, this week.

RED WILLOW.

Paul Smith went with Charles Stauffer to Colorado, where he expects to take a homestead.

Mrs. Louis Longnecker has been ill with stomach trouble, but is better. Little Blossom also had a sick spell, but is well again.

Mr. Holland's condition is about the same.

Earnest efforts are being made to secure a school house in the northeast part of District No. 1, for the benefit of those who are 2½ and 3 miles from a school. This brings out human nature in all its phases—some working for the good of others, some fighting it.

Frank Hess is having a serious time with sickness in his family; three daughters are ill with typhoid fever, with pneumonia complications.

BOX ELDER.

Everybody invited to the chicken pie supper at the church, next Saturday night.

D. B. Doyle moved his dwelling house across the road, Thursday.

Miss Maggie Simmerman of Spring Creek is assisting Mrs. D. B. Doyle with her housework.

On account of the stormy weather, last Thursday, the sale of J. K. Gordon and W. A. Stone was not very well attended.

Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Miller visited at G. A. Shields', Wednesday.

Miss Debbie Johnson visited, Tuesday and Wednesday, with her aunt, Mrs. T. M. Campbell.
